ORDER UNDER SEAL

GREGORY H. WOODS, United States District Judge:

On October 19, 2017, the Court issued orders preventing various entities from giving notice to their subscribers, customers, or any other people of one or more administrative subpoenas to be issued to those entities by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the ‘Commission’) pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b). Those orders and the motion which precipitated them are sealed.

In those orders, the Court directed the Commission to provide an update to the Court concerning the status of the investigation and the continued justification, if any, of the Court’s orders within every 180 days from the issuance of those orders. On April 17, 2018 the Court received an update letter from the Commission. The second update letter was due on October 14, 2018. No such letter has been received.

The Commission is ordered to provide the Court with the required update letter forthwith.

SO ORDERED.
